Our guest:

Drs. Randall J. Birnberg

For close to 30 years, Randall, an American educator and 'happiness' researcher at Erasmus University, has worked to develop inherent human potential in individuals. From Native Americans "on the res" in New Mexico to Italian street kids of Rome, he has provided psychological tools to enhance individual strengths and individual awareness. For almost twenty years, Randall has broadened his knowledge and experience here in Europe. He has lectured, trained and coached PhD students, future teachers and a host of business men and women from international companies throughout Europe.

All doctoral candidates are cordially invited!
